12 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) CR NO. 07-00788 JF (NJV)
13 Plaintiff,)
14 vs.) STIPULATION AND [PROPOSED] ORDER
15 DANIEL RANGEL,) TO AMEND CONDITIONS OF RELEASE Defendant.) TO ALLOW DEFENDANT TO TRAVEL
) FOR WORK
17)

18 Defendant Daniel Rangel, through his attorney, and the United States, through its 19 attorney, hereby stipulate and move this Court to amend Mr. Rangel's conditions of release to 20 allow him to travel as needed for his employment and with the approval of his Pretrial Services
21 Officer within the United States. The reasons are as follows.

22 Mr. Rangel is employed as a truck driver for a moving and storage company. His work
23 frequently requires him to travel to different states. At the bail hearing, the parties agreed, and 24 the Magistrate Judge ordered, that he be permitted to travel for employment within the states of 25 California, Oregon, Washington, Nevada and Utah. Subsequently, however, Mr. Rangel received
26 an assignment from his employer that would take him to the East Coast, and to and through
27 numerous states that are not on the list already approved by the Court. It is in the interests of all
28 concerned that Mr. Rangel be able to maintain employment and earn a living while on bail.

STIPULATION AND PROPOSED ORDER TO AMEND CONDITIONS OF RELEASE, U.S. V. DANIEL RANGEL, CR NO.

1 Accordingly, the parties have stipulated that his conditions of release may be modified to allow
2 travel within the United States for purposes of employment and with the approval of his Pretrial
3 Services Officer. The Order should also require Mr. Rangel to provide his Pretrial Services
4 Officer with his itinerary before any such travel.

5 The parties therefore respectfully request an Order amending his conditions of release to 6 allow him to travel as specified above.

7 Dated: March 13, 2008

Respectfully submitted,
